DEATH CLAIMS

W. D. EAKIN

One of Hamlin's honored citizens and a pioneer of this country, W. D. Eakin, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. W. Nobles, on Union Avenue, on Sunday, April 12 at 10:20 P. M.

At the time of his death, Mr. Eakin had reached 75 years, 3 months and 6 days of age. He was one of the few remaining real pioneers of the City of Hamlin, coming to this section of West Texas several years before there was a Hamlin. He was a typical man of the old days, born in the state of Virginia on January 6, 1861, he came to Hunt County, Texas, at the age of six, and there grew to manhood, marrying Mary Deborah Wilkerson. To this union there were three children, one of which died in infancy, the others surviving are Mrs. Wade H. Collins, of Brownfield, Texas, and Mrs. B. W. Nobles of Hamlin. Three grand children survive, Bill Collins of Lubbock, and Warren and Mary Margaret Nobles of Hamlin. The companion passed away in 1929.

At the age of six year, when the deceased came to Texas, Hunt County was on the very edge of the West, and in the years between 1895 and 1900, the call of the deep west attracted Mr. Eakin to this country when in his young vigorous manhood, followed his late brother, John Eakin to this county of wild game and cheap lands. His first holdings were in the edge of Fisher county, northwest of where Hamlin now stands. His post office, then, was the Hitson store. Later Mr. Eakin acquired lands in what is now the Fairview Church community, and as time went on he became one of the substantial property owners of this community.

In the early days of Hamlin's life, Mr. Eakin had a good part in the various enterprises that laid its sure foundation. One of these was the bonus offering from the people of Hamlin for the coming of the A. & S. Rail Road. During the years, Mr. Eakin served the city as an alderman. He was a member of the First Baptist Church, and contributed to the building of the first structure here and then later liberally supported the construction of the present new building.

The past few years, especially since his companion died, and since his only brother passed away, life has seemed all the more serious and lonely. He had a jolly disposition, yet life was always serious to him. He followed events closely without much talk. The close friends of Mr. Eakin will especially miss his familiar figure sitting on the shady side of the street, observing and occasionally exchanging a hearty greeting and laughter.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church, Monday afternoon, conducted by the pastor Rev. J. Henry Littleton and Rev. Hugh A. Longino. A profusion of lovely flowers and the presence of a large number of friends and the many expressions of tribute from the pastor, all bore testimony to the esteem and love for the memory of the deceased and the sorrowing members of the family.

The pall bearers were J. W. Ezell, John T. Day, Clyde Wilson, Garland Tundin, Bud Ferguson, Paul Bryan, John C. Turner and George Howard. The body was in charge of the Barrow Company and interment was in the Neinda Cemetery.

GENERAL CRUDE BASEBALL TEAM

The General Crude Oil Company boys have organized a dandy baseball team and have started out to see how much fun and frolic they can stir up this summer.

The Gen. Cruders had their opening play last Sunday with Rotan. The score at the end of 12 innings stood at 2 to 3 in favor of Rotan.

The Gen. Crude team will have another opportunity to defeat the Rotan team this coming Sunday, April 19th.

General Crude has three new players on their team this year including a new pitcher, "Lefty" Courtney.

Fred Hulsey was chosen Business Manager and Sprul Dean, Field Manager.

The game with Rotan will be played in Hamlin at the City Ball Park. Game being called for 3 o'clock.

CAMPBELL'S RULE STORE TO HAMLIN

In this weeks Herald there appears a page advertisement, styled "Campbell's, Hamlin, Texas, Big Consolidation Sale."

This means that their Rule store has come to Hamlin and their stocks are consolidated, and thus introduced to the Hamlin territory.

The Campbell's have maintained a store at Rule for the past five years, and also one in Hamlin for the past 18 months. The Hamlin store has been managed by Dee Campbell, while the Rule store was managed by his brother, Frank Campbell.

About six months ago, Frank married a Rule girl, Miss Frances Rogers, formerly a teacher. Frank is married—Dee is NOT. This would lead one to think the married man is the older—and he may be—but the general impression is that Dee is the older. Frank comes to Hamlin with a firm determination to make good in the merchandising business, and he has a very popular wife to help him. They have rooms in the Johnson Apartments just west of the Methodist church. "Friendly Hamlin" welcomes all good people and here's hoping that Campbell's will continue to like this city.

TO TAX PAYERS OF HAMLIN INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

When the members of your School Board took office, they were sworn, under the law, to assess, levy and COLLECT taxes.

For some time past we have felt that we did not want to press our friends and neighbors on the payment of taxes, due to the general conditions that existed.

We have now reached a point in the affairs of your School District where the payment of your taxes is imperative. We are behind in both interest and principal on our bonded debt, and a suit by bondholders to enforce the payment of money due them could not be criticised, in fact, it is to be expected. We owe the money and it should be paid. We feel that neither you nor the Board desire either State or Federal Court action for the purpose of enforcing collections.

It so happens that a large part of our debt is held by the State Permanent School Fund. Under the law, by being two years delinquent in our payments to the State Permanent School Fund, the State has the right to deny us our per capita apportionment, which amounts this year to $17.50 per capita.

We are now about a year delinquent with the State, and should we fail to get current, the loss of the per capita apportionment would not only seriously cripple the operation of our schools, but would probably cause us to materially shorten our scholastic term. WE DO NOT WANT THAT TO HAPPEN—YOU DO NOT WANT IT TO HAPPEN. The way to avoid it is for the good citizens of this District to make every possible effort to pay their own taxes and to urge your neighbor to do likewise.

We again call your attention to the fact that your School Taxes have been greatly lowered, that we have not required penalty or interest to be paid for the past four years, in fact, the tax payer has been given every possible consideration. Now it is the time for the District and the Bondholders to receive some consideration.

Unless TAXES are paid in large amounts within the next sixty days, the inevitable will be upon us—that of forcing collection by suit. PLEASE, PLEASE save yourself and the School Board the necessity of having to follow this procedure.

Respectfully,
HAMLIN SCHOOL BOARD.

ANOTHER PIONEER IN HAMLIN, DIES

Early this week information came from Abilene that Grandpa T. J. Routh was very low and could not live long. He had suffered a stroke on Friday of last week following a gradual failing of health for a month or more. His condition continued to grow worse and the end came Wednesday morning at 7:20. By his bedside were all of his living children—Will Routh of Amarillo, Tom Routh of Hamlin, Joe Routh of Sweetwater and his only daughter, Mrs. Carl Holden, who with her family lived at the Routh home at 1302 Jeanette Street, Abilene. With the children and grandchildren was the feeble but always faithful companion. A son, Carroll Routh, died in 1927.

At the time of death Mr. Routh was 83 years and 15 days of age. He was born at Plano, Texas, March 31, 1853. He was united in marriage to Miss Valeria Appling in December, 1885, at Abbott, Texas. Forty-seven years ago, Mr. Routh and his young wife became citizens of Jones County, buying a nice farm just South of where Hamlin now stands. He farmed till his age and health called for a retirement. About nine years ago he purchased a home in Abilene. Often during this time he and his wife would return to Hamlin and enjoy meeting old friends.

Mr. Routh was a man who always carried a smile, a happy greeting, and even though age told on him, he kept that familiar laugh and hearty hand-shake. He was one of the pioneer members of the Hamlin Baptist Church, a deacon. He served many years on the Hamlin School Board, and in other ways carried the responsibility of citizenship to the best of his ability.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon in the Baptist Church in Hamlin where he had his membership. A large number of friends and old neighbors were present. Many tokens of the love and esteem for the deceased was in evidence.

The body was in charge of an Abilene Undertaking firm and interment was in East Cemetery, Hamlin.

SENIORS DEDICATE GFT TO SCHOOL

Wednesday was a great day for the Seniors. It marked the dedication of the Senior gift to the School for 1936. This year the Seniors decide that stage furniture was a much needed and very appropriate gift. So, Miss Thompson, with some of the Seniors, went down to Mr. Barrow's Furniture Store and selected a beautiful living room suite, an occasional chair, and a table for the stage. We wish to extend to Mr. Barrow our thanks for his making it possible for us to buy such a good suite at such a low cost. The suite is of deepest purple mohair and is lovely on the stage. When yeo are again in the auditorium we are sure you'll agree with us that it was a "good buy."

At the regular assembly period, the gift was formally presented to the school. Farrow Burns, the Senior president, made a speech of dedication. Virginia Collins, Constance Teague, and Eva Fowler made response from the various classes. Mr. Green responded for the school. The program also consisted of numbers by the Senior Male Trio and a Senior boys duet. Lester Mott led the entire group in singing "The Eyes of Texas" and "Texas, My Texas."

The program was concluded by the awarding of pennants to pupils who placed in County and District Scholastics.

Chicken dinner to starboard!

"Here comes a rooster, floating by on a chicken coop! The repairman is rowin' out to catch him—we'll have chicken stew for supper!"

In the flood-swept little river town, only the telephone operators remained, keeping the lines open for levee workers fighting the angry torrent. And at sundown, by long distance, the marooned office reported all well—and a chicken dinner in sight!

Good times and bad, it takes people to give you telephone service—men and women with the ability to do a good job in fair weather, and the courage to stay at their posts when emergencies threaten.

The entire specialized organization of the telephone system—this company, the expert staff of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, Bell Laboratories, Western Electric—exists for one purpose only:

To help the men who patrol the lines, and the women who work at the switchboard, do a better job of giving you good, economical telephone service.

SAVE PENALTY AND INTEREST

APRIL 30, 1936, LAST DAY FOR PAYMENT OF HAMLIN SCHOOL TAXES WITHOUT PENALTY AND INTEREST

In compliance with the Texas State Statutes, the Hamlin School Board has set the last day of this month (April 30, 1936) as the final date for the payment of unpaid taxes due the Hamlin Independent School District without penalty and interest.

We are asking for payment of Hamlin School taxes before April 30 for two reasons, viz:

1st. The Hamlin Independent School District is far behind in the payment of accumulated debts and must have money for payment on these debts.

2nd. The Hamlin School Board has been extremely lenient in the matter of school tax collections, and in conformity with this leniency has set the final date for the payment of school taxes without penalty or interest at a late date—April 30th.

Please help finance your schools by immediate payment of your school taxes.

Signed,

$1,000 — For Someone Who Knows What To Do With It

WHAT would you do with $1,000? Gertrude Berg, mother of radio's famous family, The Goldbergs, wants to know. And she'll pay $1,000 in cash prizes to those who give her the most convincing answers. The first prize will be $1,000.

Would you buy a house? Would you lift the mortgage? Would you chuck it all and go to Europe? Would you give it to Roosevelt? Would you put it in the bank for your children's education? Would you buy a car... a new suit... a new dress... a few hats? Would you give it to charity? And why? Mrs. Berg, a keen student of human nature, has been asking her friends that question. And the answers have been so varied and interesting, she decided to ask everybody in the country the same question. If you'll listen to The Goldbergs on the radio Mrs. Berg will give you all the details. She wants every letter mailed by April 30th, and then she will pick the winner.

SENIORS TO PRESENT THEIR PLAY 'GUESS AGAIN'

Deah, Meah! Four bloomin' Henglishmen in one cast—two real and two as real as possible. Up goes the price of monacles and tweeds! Bloaters and marmalade for breakfast! My word!

But that's not all. Oh my, no! There's Sol Messer, the monie "mag-net" and Lulu, the bigleague newspaper columnist, and Renee Lamour, one of Hollywood's most ambitious chisellers, and "Soak-em-Hard" Pratt, the dastardly villian about to fore-close on poor old Grimes, the hotel proprietor, and Waldo Fitts, porter and geneal nuisant who can play any part ever inveted and Mrs. Skinner, who is as 1890-ish as the law will allow, and her fresh young insurgent of a daughter, Dora Mae, and Olive Ordway, who tats raw cauliflower and is ready on a moment's notice to teach you the up-lift walk, and Janet Moore, the comeliest of college sweethearts, and Bill Douglas with a dime but with a head full of ideas — mostly about Janet and Marcella, Jenks, an ambitious but-none-too-shrewd news-hawk, and — but why go on? All these people will be turned loose on Thursday night, April 30, when the Senior Class brings to you the fastest, funniest farce of the decade, "Guess Again." And don't forget Lord Wiggleton. Four Lord Wiggletons. Yes, sir, four.

ENCOURAGING MAKING

BED SPREADS

Essentials of bed spreads are having them plenty long to cover and protect the bed and springs—so Mrs. N. L. Crowley told us.

"Materials for bed spreads," Mrs. Jerry Crowley told us, "should be suitable to the type of furniture and room. Colors should harmonize with the wall paper and curtains. Fancy quilts, coverlets, crinkled materials, old-fashioned prints, etc., are practical. Voile made with a strip of shirring around the edge and a full ruffled flounce, embroidered with a color underneath, etc., are some of the fancier spreads."

"Laundering bed spreads," Mrs. H. J. Jackson said, "should be done with care to be sure they do not fade. They should be hung on the line straight and when nearly dry turned and hung in the opposite, then the crinkled, etc., one will not need ironing."

Mrs. R. N. Young exhibited a wool cream or wool from our specialist colors.

Mrs. J. M. Doods was elected council representative as Mrs. Clark's health isn't so she can attend now.

This program was given at Mrs. N. L. Crowley's, April 2.

There were 14 members and 1 visitor present. Mrs. Crowley served cake and ice cream.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. Jerry Crowley. Subject: "Making and Storing Bedding." A wool comfort will be made. Motto: "A place for everything and everything in its place."

Ford - FOR ECONOMY

"The Ford V-8 uses less fuel and oil for the power it gives than any other car we have ever made

AND ITS UP-KEEP COST IS THE LOWEST"

ENTHUSIASTIC sales talk often begins and ends with gasoline mileage. Some salesmen would like you to believe it is the whole story of automobile economy. But drivers ought to know better. For, the fact is, it's way down the list.

The big items of car economy are low first cost, low up-keep cost and low depreciation. Savings here can make a great deal of difference in cost per mile. Gasoline mileage is more of a talking point than an economy factor.

Check up and you will find that the difference between 17 and 19 miles a gallon is less than $10 for a whole year's average driving (8400 miles at 18 cents a gallon). Here are the big items that make the Ford the most economical car:

More value for every dollar you pay. Lower cost for repairs and service. Long life. Slow depreciation.

Quality means economy and the 1936 Ford V-8 gives you more real quality than any other low-price car. No other car under $1645 has a V-8 engine. No other low-price car has Center-Poise Riding, safe, sure mechanical brakes and Safety Glass all around at no extra cost.

Even Texas Dogs Go High-Hat

Down Dallas way even the pups enter into the spirit of the coming Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens there June 6. Here is Bozette, seven-weeks-old, pedigreed Boston Terrier, getting into the spirit of things by using a 10-gallon hat for a kennel.

HUGE MEMORIAL SHAFT FOR SAN JACINTO

The huge San Jacinto memorial, topping the height of the Washington monument, will be started during Centennial year on the San Jacinto battlefield near Houston. It is planned to build the structure 564 feet high and to install elevators which will carry passengers to an observation platform, 90 feet from the top.

EDITORIAL NOTE:

The above "Centennial" item is of special interest to the Herald man. We remember, in about the year 1927, we saw the grounds (slightly) of the San Jacinto battlefield. It was when the Legislature was taking a trip down the Houston Ship Canal. Some one told us we were soon to pass that historical spot, and to keep a "keen" lookout.

The Houston Ship Canal is the water highway of the world—great ships—carry people of all lands—they pass and pass and do not know what the few old graveyard shafts meant. "Our" heart burned with humiliation to think Texas had not erected at least a creditable sign to let all strangers know that they were passing the very cradle of liberty for a great state and nation.

The next week in Austin we sent up an amendment to an appropriation bill, directing the Board of Control to use $10,000 or as much thereof as might be needed to erect a "creditable" Memorial Sign that could be seen by night as well as day, to properly show the "world" the sacred grounds of San Jacinto. The amendment failed.

Some day, think of a tower 564 feet—high enough to peer into the Gulf. Truly our dream did come true not only for a $10,000 marker but for one costing 10 times $10,000. O Glorious Texas!

TEXAS ALMANAC

The book of 100,000 facts—the 1936 edition of the Texas Almanac—is just off the press. It is the largest volume in the history of this publication—a total of 512 pages, on better grade of paper and more profusely illustrated. The 1936 book, although designated as the "Centennial Edition" and compiled in tribute to the grand celebration in Texas this year, misses only 21 years of reaching its own centennial year, having been first issued in 1857 by the Galveston News, the parent organization of The Dallas News, its present publishers.

While much new material of historical nature is included in the new issue, none of the chapters that has made the Texas Almanac the standard reference book of Texas in the past has been omitted. The names of several thousand individuals appear in its pages.

Features of the current issue include an extensive description of the Texas Centennial, including celebrations at Dallas and other points in the state, an outline of the history of Texas from its beginning to the present, an illustrated chapter on the wildflowers of Texas, lists of the different kinds of trees and wild animals found in Texas, extensive lists of historic old towns and origins of names of Texas towns, a text of the State Constitution with all its amendments and brief account of submission of all adopted amendments since adoption of the Constitution, and the new farm census figures of 1935. There is much of interest for the coming political campaign, including the current poll tax payments by counties. All figures on State, county and city bonded debt are brought up to date. There are several chapters devoted to points of interest for the Centennial tourist in Texas, and a new map made in four colors especially for this edition of the Texas Almanac, entitled "Texas for Tourists," is folded between the leaves of each volume.

There are more than 100,000 facts about the history, natural resources, crops, livestock, industries, commerce, transportation, finance, government, politics, educational system, cultural institutions and other phases of Texas economic, political and social development.

The Texas Almanac, always in demand by business and professional men and women and students in the Lone Star State will be more in demand this year than ever before. Texas history is more glamorous and richly appealing on the State's 100th birthday. Thousands of out-of-State visitors and newcomers will find this birthday edition particularly acceptable. No individual or organization is so thoroughly equipped to present in book form a compendium of Texas data. Facts and figures come from all parts of the State to find, in well edited form, their niche in this widely demanded book on Texas—its past, present and future.

NOTE: The Herald will take your order for the 1936 Texas Almanac. Get one—it will make a good addition to your library.

Luscious peaches canned from tree-ripe fruit—nature's finest dessert. The canners have large stocks of canned peaches from last year's pack and another crop near at hand. Safeway went into the market with cash and bought peaches. You can benefit from this purchase by stocking your pantry shelves and at the same time give the grower a much needed "boost" in helping make room for his 1936 crop.

In the twilight hour of a day that made history, the star of Texas rose victorious over San Jacinto.

A hundred years have passed since San Jacinto, yet that day is as yesterday to Texans, who have kept its memory a living thing.

The Texas of today is but Today's expression of all that the men of San Jacinto stood for—freedom, progress, and individuality that is a part of the harmonious whole.

No better wish for Texas could be uttered than that it may continue for the hundred years to come in the pathway marked out for its progress by that band of daring men who gave its empire birth at Goliad, the Alamo and San Jacinto.

Admiration and Bright and Early coffees are satisfying Texans of today because of their real qualities of goodness.

Change to the different oil... alloyed

and be kind to your wallet

We'd rather see you change to any fresh oil, before we'd have you risk watery Winter dregs in your crankcase any longer. Any fresh oil is better for you than that.

But when you change to Germ Processed, don't do it just to change your brand of oil; do it to change your whole brand of lubrication!

That's how different this alloyed oil is. And here's why: the patented Germ Process of alloying oil gives it an "affinity" for metals... not only for steels and iron, but for every type of bearing metal now in use, no matter how carefully it must be lubricated.

With alloyed oil actually merging into every inner engine surface, and with the high-durability Germ Processed oil-film also in between the moving parts, your engine is doubly summer-safe. You can streak along on days that shimmy with heat. But your heat indicator needn't jump, and your oil level needn't slump. Not with this different, alloyed oil... High time for you to say "Drain," but be selfish—say Conoco Germ Processed. Continental Oil Company.

Lady Took Cardui When Weak, Nervous

"I can't say enough for Cardui if I talked all day," enthusiastically writes Mrs. L. H. Caldwell, of Statesville, N. C. "I have used Cardui at intervals for twenty-five years," she adds. "My trouble in the beginning was weakness and nervousness. I read of Cardui in a newspaper and decided right then to try it. It seemed before I had taken half a bottle of Cardui I was stronger and was soon up and around."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

FINE LETTER FROM

REV. J. A. YOUNG

McAllen, Texas, 4-9-36.

Bowen Pope,
Hamlin, Texas
Dear Mr. Pope:

We arrived in the beautiful Valley, a little over two weeks ago. It is quite a contrast between this part of the state and the Hamlin country. The citrus groves were in full bloom when we arrived and you could smell the lovely aroma a half mile before you got to it. The potato crop is now ready and is promising a good yield. Tomatoes will be ready in about two weeks, while some of the corn is waist high and very promising for a fine yield.

The citrus fruit was removed from all trees the first of this month and the new crop looks fine and is as large as marbles. There was nearly eight thousand cars shipped from the Valley last year. We attended a flower show last Saturday, in McAllen, sponsored by the McAllen Garden Club. They had one hundred and sixty different varieties and was indeed beautiful; there were seven hundred and sixty-six visitors. This made a wonderful impression when we consider the time of the year when most of our great state is still lying dormant in its winter costume.

We have enjoyed two fishing trips, one to Port Isabell, and the other to Boca-chica. The latter located near the south jetties of this southern port. This proved to be very successful for the fishing party as a beautiful catch of some seventy-five pounds of trout and a beautiful red fish were landed by the different anglers. Dr. Bowyer, of Anson, landed a forty pound shark, and it was interesting to see him land this baby sea monster. In conclusion, we hope to see our Hamlin friends when the weather moderates. Till then, good bye.

J. A. YOUNG.

Miss Winifred McAllister, of Tuxedo, was visiting relatives in Hamlin the past week-end.

Folk Leader

Gertrude Knott, noted authority on folk lore, is supervising handling of the third annual national folk festival, which will open at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas June 14. Special attention will be paid this year to the songs of the old Southwest. Miss Knott's staff plans to make the festival the largest on record.

MAYBE we're lazy—or busy—or just plain sensible, but there isn't a woman I know who isn't eager to find a really good recipe for drop cookies. These are something of a discovery. They are made of cereal and coconut which means they are good as well as good for you. You can make them of cereal flakes—any kind you happen to have on hand.

Crunchy Drop Cookies

1 1/3 cups sifted flour; 3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 3 cups cereal flakes; 1 cup butter or other shortening; 1 cup granulated sugar; 1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed; 2 eggs, unbeaten; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 1 1/2 cups shredded coconut.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again; add flakes. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, creaming thoroughly. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add vanilla. Add flour and flakes mixture, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition. Add coconut. Drop from teaspoon on ungreased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 12 to 15 minutes, or until done. Makes about 5 dozen cookies. For variation, 1/2 cup chopped nuts may be added to mixture before baking.

And Now
CANNED
CORN-ON-THE-COB

CORN-ON-THE-COB—all year round—well, that has been pretty much the dream of Americans. For it is only in America that the growing, cooking and serving of corn-on-the-cob is done to perfection. A native of this country, corn finds its best roots in its native soil, flourishes best in its sunshine—and, boiled to just the right degree when it is fresh picked from the stalk, served piping hot with butter and salt—it is, indeed, something to dream about.

The recent method of packing under vacuum has made possible fresh-from-the-field corn all year round. It is packed without water, the only liquid being the juice of the corn which is held intact in the plump kernels, just as it is when you eat it out on the farm. In fact, canners have conscientiously adhered to the old farmer's adage—have the water boiling while the corn is being picked. In this way there is no chance for the sweet succulence of the kernels to become dried out before it is cooked.

Hark to These!

Two amusing corn stories which have come over to us from Europe bear out the statement that it is only in America that you eat good

AT a post-war luncheon given in Berlin to American diplomats the chef, eager to serve a characteristic American dish, sent in a covered dish labeled "corn à la Washington." It was tiny green ears of corn about an inch long elaborately served in a sauce!

Another tale from London describes the astonishment of an American traveler, homesick for the flavor of good American corn, when at last he found it on a hotel menu served cold as an hors d'oeuvre!

Get Rid of Poisons
Produced by Constipation

A cleansing laxative—purely vegetable Black-Draught—is the first thought of thousands of men and women who have found that by restoring the downward movement of the bowels many disagreeable symptoms of constipation promptly can be relieved. . . Mr. J. P. Mahaffey, of Clinton, S. C., writes: "I have found that Black-Draught is very effective in the cleansing of the system. When affected by the dull headache, the drowsiness and lassitude caused by constipation, I take Black-Draught."

NAVY MODELS

TO BE SEEN

DALLAS, Texas, March 30.—Guarded night and day by detachments of United States soldiers and Marines some of the most precious documents in the archives of the United States will be on exhibition in the Federal exhibit building at the Texas Centennial Exposition during the coming summer.

On display in specially constructed glass cases will be the Louisiana Purchase Treaty of 1819 and the joint resolution of Congress of 1845 annexing the Republic of Texas to the Union. Diplomatic correspondence between the United States and the Republic of Texas and the historic report on the "Condition of Texas" made to President Andrew Jackson by Henry M. Morfit in 1836 will also be on exhibition.

"The United States government exhibit at the Texas Centennial Exposition will be valued at more than $25,000,000," says E. H. Burdick, Federal exhibits director. "The historical documents, of course, are priceless but there will also be shown the United States Post Office Department's collections of stamps, which will leave Washington for the first time. It contains specimens of every United States stamp ever issued, stamps of the Confederacy and as nearly as possible all stamps issued by foreign governments. It is worth some $10,000,000.

"The United States Navy will display $100,000 worth of models of war vessels each about 17 feet long. Scientists from the Smithsonian Institution will reconstruct prehistoric animals during the entire progress of the Exposition which commences June 6. The National Advisory Committee on Aeronautics will install a 10-foot wind tunnel to demonstrate flight conditions with model planes. A census machine will register estimated births and deaths throughout the United States from hour to hour."

Six hundred United States infantry men, sailors and marines will be encamped on the Exposition grounds from June 6 to November 29.
